About me

David was a regular gym member for many years when working in a different industry. His work colleagues always asked him for health and fitness advice and commented that he should become a personal trainer. So, when the opportunity arose, he jumped at the chance. He feels it was a no-brainer to be paid to do something he loved.

In 2014, he was honoured to be made a Life Member of 'Bicycle Network' (Australia's largest cycling membership organisation). David's philosophy is that without health, you have nothing, so it must be part of one's sustainable lifestyle over the longer term. One of David's favourite quotes is 'Appearance is merely a consequence of health and fitness'.
